

Similarly, provisionally non-elected Claim 22 relates to a method simply comprising mixing the components of the Claim 1 composition. Again, if Claim 1 is allowable, Claim 22 is allowable. Thus, there is no burden in including Claim 22 with the elected claims.

Accordingly, Applicants traverse the Restriction Requirement because the divided Groups of claims would not place a burden on the Office if they were all considered together. Moreover, Applicants request rejoinder of the provisionally non-elected method and process claims.
